Python-focused software developer working on market-data capture, time-series replay and trade reconciliation. Built and operated an independent trading system, then published its limitations and postmortem. Background in futures trading and logistics operations.

SKILLS

Languages: Python, SQL, TypeScript, JavaScript.

Data and integration: PostgreSQL, SQLite, REST APIs, WebSockets, MCP, JSON/JSONL.

Market-data analysis: Pandas, NumPy, time-series replay, execution simulation, trade reconciliation.

Financial markets: Futures, order-flow analysis, technical and fundamental analysis.

Engineering: Git, Docker, GitHub Actions, automated tests, debugging and documentation.

INDEPENDENT PROJECTS & OPEN SOURCE

Polybow - independent project, 2026: Built and operated a Python trading system on AWS Lightsail with WebSocket books and signed CLOB requests. Investigated execution and account discrepancies; published a ledger and postmortem. Live trading stopped; not evidence of durable profitability.

Pattern Forge: Built market replay that recalculates indicators from available candles only. Tests exclude incomplete timeframes and future data.

Info Desk: Built versioned evidence retrieval and cited AI drafts, with tests for invalid citations and interrupted jobs. Live research runs locally; the public demo is recorded.

Haystack #12635 - merged: Fixed validation rejecting zero-valued hierarchy metadata; added a regression test and release note.

EXPERIENCE

De Bommel | E-commerce dispatch · Ceyenne software and DHL | 2025
